CHICAGO, December 6.-A general rush to buy wheat today resulted from the big export business this week, estimated at 4,500,000 bushels. There were also advices that the purchasing of American and Canadian grain for some of the belligerent countries was likely to be much increased. In addition. European crop reports were generally buillish, and word was received that Argentine dealers had decided to prohibit the sale of wheat except above a fixed minimum price. Opening quotations here, which were \(\frac{1}{2} \) bigher. fixed minimum price. Opening quotations here, which were ½ to 2 higher, with May at 1.77½ to 1.79 and July at 1.47½ to 1.48, were followed by a sharp further advance.

147½ to 1.48, were followed by a sharp further advance.

Scarcity of rural offerings had a bullish effect on corn. The strength of wheat tended also to lift prices. After opening ½ off to ½ up, the market scored a decided general upturn.

Oats developed firmness in sympathy with other cereals. On the advance, however, selling pressure increased. Higher quotations on hogs and grain carried provisions upgrade. Demand was chiefly for lard.

References to food shortage in Great Britain and to diminished wheat exports from Australia and India counted in favor of the bulls, but later were offset to some extent by another substantial increase of marine war risk insurance. Down turns of prices, though, were transitory. The close was unsettled, 2% to 4% net higher, with May at 1.80% to 1.81% and July at 1.50%.

Bearish corn reactions failed to last. The close was strong at 2% to 3% net advance.

COTTON MARKETS.

NEW YORK, December 6.—There was a renewal of yesterday's late buying movement at the opening of the cotton market today, and first prices were 18 to 22 points higher. Firmer cables encouraged the advance, which carried January contracts up to 20.14 and May to 20.57, shortly after the call. This advance of some 26 to 29 points from last night's close attracted realizing, with some reactions.

Procedure Under Compensation Laws Discussed at Social Insurance Conference.

CONSIDERATION OF EQUITY

Because it contributes to equity be ween employers and because it affords ducements for preventing accidents, he method of schedule rating in deter nining workmen's compensation for injuries was held to be superior to the xperience rating in an address by David S. Beyer of the Massachusetts Employes' Insurance Association before he social insurance conference at the Mr. Beyer, the experience rating in determining the schedule of workmen's ompensation is inequitable to the empenalty for a single accident for which the employer may be entirely blame-less; its benefits are given to the large employer, but denied the small employer, and probably the majority of all plants insured are not permitted to share in experience rating on account of their size; and it applies to past experience, penalizing the employer for something that has gone by and cannot be changed, even though conditions may have been improved in the meantime and the hazard eliminated.

Mr. Beyer said experience rating is valuable as ah accident prevention incentive, and for this reason some plan of "experience," or preferably "accident frequency," rating is desirable.

Herbert M. Wilson's Theme.

Inspection and schedule rating of coal mines as a means of preventing mine ccidents was shown by Herbert M. Wilson, director of the department of inspection and safety of the Associated Companies of Pittsburgh, Pa., to be a great step toward minimizing the danger of accident to mine workers. Other speakers this morning were Walter G. Cowles, vice president of the Travelers' Insurance Company; Leon S. Senior, manager of the New York compensation rating board, and Alfred W. Donovan, chairman of the Massachusetts board of labor and industries. A paper by Will J. French of the industrial accident commission of California was read by title.

Frank J. Donahue, chairman of the Massachusetts industrial accident board, presided at this morning's session, and George A. Kingston, commissioner on the workmen's compensation board of Ontario, Canada, presided last night.

presided at the meeting today.

In the course of his talk Supt. Thurston said there are more than ten million foreigners in the United States who do not speak, read or write English, and that Washington's population includes 35,000 foreigners, more than 2,500 of whom are unable to read, write or speak English. Necessity of educating these foreigners so that they will be enabled to take up citizenship duties in their new environment, Supt. Thurston declared, was pressing. He outlined briefly the work of the Thompson night school, where foreigners, adults as well as children, are taught and are given a start in vocational training, urging the necessity for larger appropriations for the work of the night schools of the District so that a larger number may receive instruction over a longer period of time.
